

Passenger volume & Railway lines	Ease of doing bussiness & Economic..	Geographic proximity	incoming international tourism	Conclusion
----------------------------------	--------------------------------------	----------------------	--------------------------------	------------

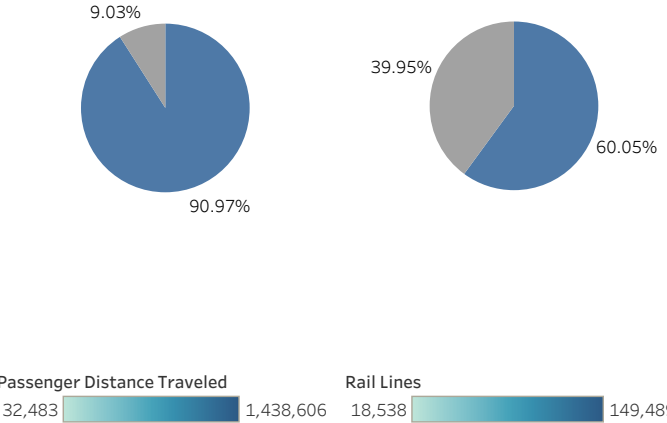

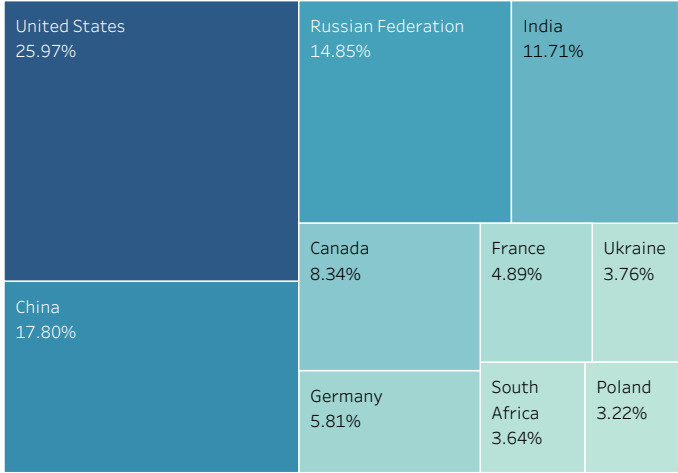

top 10 countries in passengers distance traveled ten countries responsible for carrying over 60% of the distance traveled by passengers world wide . these same 10 countries contain over 90% of the world rails . these countries mow referred to as the " top 10 " will be the primary focus top 10 countries in Rail lines distance

Passenger volume & Railway lines	Ease of doing bussiness & Economic..	Geographic proximity	incoming international tourism	Conclusion
----------------------------------	--------------------------------------	----------------------	--------------------------------	------------

Passenger volume & Railway lines	Ease of doing bussiness & Economic..	Geographic proximity	incoming international tourism	Conclusion
----------------------------------	--------------------------------------	----------------------	--------------------------------	------------

Passenger volume & Railway lines	Ease of doing bussiness & Economic..	Geographic proximity	incoming international tourism	Conclusion
----------------------------------	--------------------------------------	----------------------	--------------------------------	------------

Passenger volume & Railway lines	Ease of doing bussiness & Economic..	Geographic proximity	incoming international tourism	Conclusion
----------------------------------	--------------------------------------	----------------------	--------------------------------	------------

After a through analysis , France emerges as the top pick . it stands outs in passenger volume and extensive rail lines , striking a perfect balance with its robust economy and bussiness-friendly environment. its geographic location offers potential for international expansion , notably with promising neighboring countries . moreover , Frances's exceptional tourist appeal, leading in visitor inflow , presents a lucrative market for rail travel . thses combined factors make France the most promising country for establishing the new rail travel company